History Page

Since 1853 this corner has belonged to a Tavern, known first as “Erie House”, then “Fisherville Hotel” and today as “Ye Olde Fisherville Restaurant”.

The first settlers here were chiefly Germans & Alsatian Lorraines, many of whom had little experience in the art of clearing land, but many learned by diligence, a good axe & fire. The forests got smaller and the land for cultivation larger.

Many of the family names of pioneer days still remains today in the area. Several familiar names are; Arnold, Bacher, Benner, Mehlenbacher, Roth, Richert, Rohrbach, Winger, Otterman, Philips, Fess, Harris, Held, Schweyer, Schumacher, Kiefer, Schuur, Nagel, Reicheld, Lint, Sherk, Miller, Moerschfelder, Hunsinger, Schaeffer and Yager.

Fred Fisher, according to a long ago issue of the Haldimand Advocate, “plied his shoemaking trade when not under the influence of liquor.” However, he must have been successful to have the town named after him!

Today we are proud of our little town comprised of a Fire Department, RBC Bank, Post Office, Luke’s General Store, Lion’s Community Hall, Two Lutheran Churches, Funeral Home, Hartwick Insurance, Hunsingers Plumbing, Smuck’s Auto Repair, Mike’s Cabinet Making, Bob Otterman’s Small Engine Repair, Wray Schumacher’s Water Haulage, Heron Arms, Fisherville’s Finest Vegetable Farm, Classic Auto Body, Natural Health Therapy Store and Ye Olde Fisherville Restaurant serving up delicious food with local house cooked flavour and goodness!

We slow cook our Ribs to perfection and brush with a Forty Creek Sauce. Our famous wings are hand dusted and served with a variety of flavoured sauces. Our Perch and Fish & Chips are lightly breaded daily for freshness.

All of our dishes are served with care and local ingredients wherever possible; we are always striving to serve your taste buds better. Please take your time to peruse our menu; sit back, relax, and if you listen close enough you might be able to hear the walls tell great fun stories of years gone by!

Our wish is for you, your family and friends to enjoy your time here with us and we hope you find our service and food outstanding. We look forward to seeing you again!

John & Janna Overend and all the great staff of Ye Olde Fisherville Restaurant.
